"TAVRP Breakfast Meeting"

Topic: An overview of The Pain Revolution – preventing and overcoming persistent pain

Speaker: Lil Cox
OT and Pain Revolution Educator

Lil has worked in the practice area of mental health for over 25 years, assuming numerous roles and responsibilities and most recently in private practice at In Balance, Launceston, where she continues to hone her skills in the area of persistent pain management. Lil is trained Pain Educator, able to provide education on evidence-based active, psychological, and self-management strategies.

She will present an overview of the Pain Revolution target concepts which are being promoted for all Australians, to ensure they have access to the knowledge, skills and local support to prevent and overcome persistent pain.
